4. Our Liability to you

- 4.1. The services provided by us are for your benefit alone and solely for the purpose of the matter to which they relate. They may not be used or relied upon for any other purpose or by third parties.
- 4.2. Our duty of care is to you as our client and does not extend to any third party and any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 are excluded.
- 4.3. We shall not be liable for advice given where we instruct other professional advisors on your behalf or for payment of their fees and expenses.
- 4.4. We are only liable for the losses we cause directly. We are not liable for your loss of profit or other indirect loss. We are not liable for matters outside our control.

45. Our total liability to you (and to any other party we have agreed in writing may rely on our advice) is limited to £3,000,000. This limit applies to all claims against us related in any way with our work for you. Where we work for more than one client on a matter, this £3,000,000 limit applies to our total liability to all of them.
46. Nothing in these engagement terms limits any liability that cannot legally be limited.

5. Anti-money laundering

51. The law requires solicitors to get satisfactory evidence of the identity of their clients (and sometimes related parties) and to undertake certain checks. This is because solicitors who deal with money and property on behalf of their client can be used by criminals wanting to launder money.
52. Usually, before we start work, we must have documentary proof of your identity and, where relevant, other related parties. This information may be renewed every three years. We may verify your identities by:
- 5.2.1. searching a third-party database (This may leave a footprint on your credit file, but it will not affect your credit rating);
  - 5.2.2. asking you for copies of identity documents (which sometimes may need to be certified by another regulated professional);

You agree to provide the documents we request and that we may carry out electronic checks on you. We will not charge you for our time undertaking these checks, but will charge you for search fees. These are typically less than £10 per person or entity but may be more, particularly if international searches are required.

53. If we agree to start work before you have provided all of the identity documents that we have requested and you do not subsequently provide those documents within a reasonable time, we reserve the right to stop providing our services until such documents have been provided. You shall still be responsible for our fees relating to the services that have been provided.
54. In order to comply with statutory obligations, we operate an anti-money laundering reporting procedure. If we know or suspect that you (or any other party involved in this matter) are involved in money laundering or hold the proceeds of crime, we may be required by law to make a report to the National Crime Agency ('NCA').
55. These requirements override our duty of confidentiality to you. If a report is made to the NCA, we must stop work on the matter until it is authorised by NCA to proceed.
56. There may be circumstances in which we consider that we are obliged to make a report to the NCA which it later turns out was not required by law. By instructing us you agree that such reports can be made. We do not accept responsibility or liability for any loss that's a result of making any reports to NCA or ensuring compliance with our statutory obligations.
57. You agree to notify us promptly if it is anticipated that any payment will be paid into our client account by any third party (a third party is any person, other than our client). In these circumstances, we will not be able to proceed further until all compliance matters and any further checks have been carried out. We may charge you for the cost of our time undertaking these additional checks and for the cost of any associated search fees.
58. You acknowledge that we cannot pay any money to any party on your behalf who is not directly related to the transaction that we are advising on.

6. Client funds

61. Where we notify you of our client account or other bank account details, you must keep them confidential in order to protect against abuse.
62. Our client account must not be used in lieu of banking services and may only be used for payments which we request or which are arranged between us. We may decline to make payments from our client account unless we are satisfied that they are duly authorised.
63. We only accept payments to us of client money by bank transfer. We do not accept payments in the form of cheques, bank notes or other valuables.
64. Where we receive money from you which is to be applied on your behalf (including payments on account), it will (unless agreed otherwise with you) be held in our general client account which is subject to the strict provisions of the Solicitors' Accounts Rules ('SAR') which can be found at www.sra.org.uk.
65. We ask you to give us advance notice of all receipts to our client account on your behalf and the reasons for such receipts. For the purpose of compliance with SAR we may ask for details of the source of any money paid, or to be paid, to the client account. If you are not the source of the money, we reserve the right to request evidence of the identity of the payer. We may be restricted in returning to you or dealing with such money until all such enquiries are completed. Any receipts which are not expected and/or are not identifiable may be returned to the sender or held pending investigation.

66. Subject to the SAR we are not responsible for any currency risk or any loss arising from a failure of a bank to repay money deposited with it.
67. We may use any money that we hold on your behalf for the payment or part payment of any fees owed to us by you or any of your affiliate companies. Affiliate companies means a person or entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with you.
68. Before sending us funds, you should reconfirm our bank details by telephoning the number on our website and speaking either with your primary contact or our cashiers. We will not change our bank details. If you receive any correspondence suggesting that our bank or contact details have changed or raising any concerns in this respect, you should take no action except for contacting your primary contact at Radius.
69. In accordance with the SAR, it is the firm's policy to account to its clients for a sum in lieu of interest on client money on a fair and reasonable basis. We will pay an amount calculated for the term of holding the money equal to the holding bank's deposit rate, but if the interest should be less than £50.00 then no amount will be paid. Amounts will be paid net of any bank charges related to the money, if not separately recharged to you.

7. Our fees

71. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, the charges will be calculated in accordance the rates advertised on our web-site: www.radiuslaw.co.uk/fees/.
72. We invoice every month for work done in the prior month. If we have agreed a fixed fee with you, we shall invoice you each month the agreed fixed fee divided by the estimated number of months to complete the work.
73. By instructing us, you are authorising us to incur such expenses (disbursements) as we consider necessary. We will consult you before incurring any disbursements that exceed £350.
74. We quote fees exclusive of Value Added Tax ('VAT'). We add VAT to our invoices at the prevailing rate as applicable.
75. We prefer payments by bank transfer. Cash payments are not accepted and payments by cheque shall be subject to a £100 administration fee.
76. All invoices are due for payment within 7 days of the date of issue without any deduction, set-off or counterclaim. If a bill (or part of a bill) remains unpaid for 7 days after the date of the invoice, we reserve the right to charge:
  - 7.6.1. interest at 3% above the HSBC base rate until the payment is made;
  - 7.6.2. an administration charge of £50 for each communication we make to you to remind you of the outstanding debt.
77. If you have any problems with a bill, please see the guidance in section 10 ('Complaints'). In addition, you have a right to object to a bill by applying to the court for an assessment of the bill under Part III of the Solicitors Act 1974. If you apply to the court, the Legal Ombudsman may decide not to deal with a complaint about the bill.
78. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, you must pay all bills in sterling. If bills are not paid in sterling and we incur currency conversion charges or other bank charges, or we suffer exchange-rate losses, we reserve the right to charge additional sums to cover such items.
79. We reserve the right to stop work for you if you fail to pay our bill(s) and we will not be liable to you for any loss or damage that may result.
- 7.10. Even if a third party agrees or is ordered to reimburse part or all of your costs, you remain liable for all of our fees and expenses.

8. Termination

- 8.1. You or we may bring the provision of all or any services to an end at any time by giving written notice to the other.
82. If the services are terminated you will be liable only for fees arising and payments made or committed up to the date of termination, together with any fees or payments for services necessary in connection with the transfer of the matter to another adviser. If this happens, we shall charge for services provided in accordance with the hourly rates prevailing at the relevant time. All our rights set out in our engagement terms shall continue to apply even if we terminate the agreement between us.

9. Cancellation

- 9.1. If you are a consumer rather than a business client and we have not met with you or we have met with you away from our business premises, you may be entitled under the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013 to a 14 day 'cooling off period'

within which you may cancel your instructions without reason. This is in addition to your general right to terminate our engagement at any time. If you are so entitled and cancel within the 14 day cooling off period you will not be liable to pay any charges or expenses to us for the relevant matter, unless you have expressly asked that we undertake work for you within that cooling off period, in which case you will be charged for that work in accordance with our terms and conditions

92. To meet the cancellation deadline stated in clause 9.1, it is enough for you to send us your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired. You are not required to, but you may use the model cancellation form below to communicate your cancellation request to us.

Model cancellation form. To: Radius Law Limited, Kinetic Business Centre Theobald Street Elstree Hertfordshire WD6 4PJ. I/We [*] hereby give notice that I/We [*] cancel my/our contract for legal services. ## 10. Complaints

101. We are committed to providing you with a high quality of service but in the (hopefully unlikely) event of any problems, please discuss these with our lead director, Iain Larkins, who will respond to you within five working days of receiving your communication. If you are still not satisfied with how the complaint is handled, you can ask the Legal Ombudsman www.legalombudsman.org.uk to consider it

11. Recruitment of our employees or consultants.

111. You agree that if you directly or indirectly engage any of our employees or consultants (except where you have instructed them through us) you shall pay us an introduction fee. The introduction fee shall be 30% of any payments made to them in the first year that they are engaged directly or indirectly by you and shall be payable at the end of that first year.

12. Guarantee

121. If our client is a limited company or limited liability partnership and our engagement is agreed to by a person who, at the time of engaging us, is a director, partner or shareholder of our client, that person shall be a Guarantor. The Guarantor guarantees to us that:

- 12.1.1. our client will perform all of its obligations under these engagement terms; and 12.1.2. if our client fails to pay any fees owed to us, that he or she will personally and promptly pay those fees.

It is agreed that the Guarantor's liability under this Guarantee shall not be affected by any act or omission by us that might otherwise release the Guarantor from this liability, including: (i) any time or waiver granted by us; (ii) any variation, renewal or extension of this Agreement. In consideration of the Guarantor entering into this Guarantee, we shall pay the Guarantor £1.

132. Our engagement terms are governed by and will be construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales and to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.
